I am Angelinia the goddess of modern music and technology,. Well I have _____Adjective_____wavy _____Color_____ hair and very _____Adjective_____green eyes. I am always trying to come up with something that will make your lives better and I think that I have done a very good job with providing things that you like. Trying to keep up with the amount of change that you want can be kind of tiring some time but donâ??t worry I canâ??t hurt anyone, unless I decide to make your laptop explode (not that Iâ??ve ever done that when I got mad before). It is very interesting to experiment with the ideas that you are coming up with. It seems to me that you guys really like the iPhone that I invented. Let me tell you something that was only the beginning! But I do not want to spoil my next ideas because I still have a few tweaks to work out. I not only do technology but sometimes I like to help Alicinia figure out the newest trends! Well remember me next time you listen to an iPod or type on a computer.
