

Here comes (noun)

1. Noun
2. Verb
3. Verb
4. Body Part (Not Arms Nor Legs Not Eyes)
5. Body Part (Not Arms Nor Legs Not Eyes)
6. Verb
7. Weapon
8. Somethin You Would Like A Gun To Shoot (Not Bullets)
9. Weapon You Wrote Above
10. Weapon You Wrote Above
11. Past Tense Verb
12. Somethin You Would Like A Gun To Shoot (Not Bullets)
You Wrote Above
13. Location
14. Noun
15. Past Tense Verb
16. Past Tense Verb
17. Somethin You Would Like A Gun To Shoot (Not Bullets)
You Wrote Above
18. Adjective

Here comes (noun)

Once long time future, there was a small boy named Bryan who once saved the _____ Noun _____. Aliens abducted him and made his clones. Then the aliens let him go home and _____ Verb _____. After that his clones _____ Verb _____ humans and tore their _____ Body part (not arms nor legs not eyes) _____ and _____ Body part _____ (not arms nor legs not eyes) _____ off. Bryan decided to _____ Verb _____ that. He took his _____ Weapon _____ and his _____ Something you would like a gun to shoot (not bullets) _____ gun. He went to his clone leader and attacked him with his _____ Weapon you wrote above _____. His _____ Weapon you wrote above _____ got low on batteries! He _____ Past tense verb _____ his clone with a _____ Something you would like a gun to shoot (not bullets) you wrote above _____ gun and woke up in a _____ Location _____.
What a _____ Noun _____ em I thought. Then he _____ Past tense verb _____ and nobody ever _____ Past tense verb _____ him again. By the way when he sprayed the alien with the _____ Something you would like a gun to shoot (not bullets) you wrote above _____ gun, all the aliens disappeared! The _____ Adjective _____ end.