I Met A Boy

Once I met a boy named Boy's name . First I thought he was really Adjective , with his Color hair, Different color eyes, and pierced Body part . But once you get to know him, you'll think he is really Adjective and Adjective . But when my friend Girl's name (not yours) met him, she was all, ' I am so in love with him! OMG!! I have not met anyone so Adjective in my life! ' So they started dating and before ya knew it, they were talking about getting married! I was a part of the wedding.....which was not the nicest wedding ever. But now they are living together happily with their Number children.
