

The Appointment

1. Noun
2. Adjective
3. Location
4. Adjective
5. Past Tense Verb
6. Adverb
7. Noun
8. Location
9. Same Verb (Present)
10. Adverb
11. Same Verb (Present)
12. Adjective
13. Adjective
14. Same Verb (Present)
15. Adjective
16. Noun
17. Location

The Appointment

A sixteen-year-old boy worked on his grandfather's _____ Noun farm. One morning he drove a

Adjective pickup truck into _____ Location on an errand. While he was walking along the Adjective street, he saw Death. Death _____ Past tense verb him. The boy drove the truck back to the farm as _____ Adverb as he could. 'Give me your _____ Noun, he begged. 'I'll go to _____ Location. He'll never

Same verb (present) me there.' His grandfather gave him the truck and his _____ noun and the boy sped away _____ Adverb. After he left, his grandfather went into _____ location looking for Death. When he found him, he asked, 'Why did you _____ Same verb (present) my grandson in such a _____ Adjective way? He's only sixteen. He's too _____ Adjective to die.' 'I am sorry about that,' said Death. I did not mean to _____ Same verb
(present) to him. But I felt _____ Adjective when I saw him here. You see, I have a _____ Noun appointment with him this afternoon-in _____ Location.