Caught by your girl with another.

Jake and Erik were throwing a           Noun          . They invited a bunch of their           Adjective           friends to come hang out and play           Event           pong. Jake didn't mention to his           Noun           that he was having a party. He was hiring           Noun           and didn't want her there. The night of the party came and a bunch of people were there. Jake invited a           Number           of his exes and they all showed up. That night they drank a shit load of           Noun          . Some of his friends even brought           Noun           with them. They all sat around with a bong smoking it. He was hanging with one of his           Noun           when the other exes noticed. They were           Emotion          . So they all decided to go over and           Verb           all over him. By this point he was way too           Adjective           to remember his girlfriend...or the fact that he was throwing a party without inviting her on their           Number           year anniversary. His exes had him           Past tense verb           down on the couch           Verb                     ending in ing           him and trying to undress him at the same time. He didn't fight back. Then, the girls helped him up and carried him back to his           Location          . Little did he know his girlfriends best friend was there           Verb           this happened and called his girlfriend to let her know. She didn't believe her friend and wanted to           Verb           for herself. She           Verb           out to his house and when she pulled up noticed he was having a           Event          . She rushed inside to her boyfriends room and what her           Noun           said was true. There he was naked with a couple of girls           Verb ending in ing           over him. She screamed and the           Plural noun           turned around. She shutup immediatley as she noticed that one of the           plural noun           on top of him was her friend.
