Grade 2 Fun

There once was a great boy named Eli. He wanted to go on a _____Adjective_____journey to the JCDS playground.

When he arrived there, he met a _____Adjective_____wizard named Simcha, a _____Adjective_____lion named Elliana, and a _____Adjective_____monkey named Abby. Wizard Simcha asked Eli if he wanted to see something _____Adjective_____. Of course, Eli replied "yes". So the four friends went to Simcha's special place. Little did Eli know, they were about to enter a world of legos. They arrived at a _____Adjective_____door. The door was hidden inside of the playground slide. Eli carefully opened the door and...poof!...5 little fairies named Eliora, Tomer, Jordan, Jodd and Tamar came down from the sky. "Hello, new friends"; they all exclaimed. "Welcome to the beautiful land of legos". The fairies showed all of their new friends around their _____Adjective_____place. Wizard Simcha asked, "well, is it special or what?"; The three friends all screamed "It's _____Adjective_____We want to stay here forever!"; And that's what they did. They lived happily ever after in the land of legos.
