The Lion in Love

A LION demanded the daughter of a Name of a person in marriage. The Name of a person unwilling to grant, and yet afraid to refuse his request, hit upon this expedient to rid himself of his importunities. He expressed his willingness to accept the Lion as the suitor of his daughter on one condition: that he should allow him to extract his Noun and cut off his Noun as his daughter was fearfully afraid of both. The Lion cheerfully assented to the proposal.

But when the toothless, clawless Lion returned to repeat his request, the Name of a person no longer afraid, set upon him with his Noun and drove him away into the Location .
