Pickles

Tommy Pickles was A very Adjective boy who could never stop eating Pickles. He ate pickles all day, and he ate pickles all night. If the Adjective boy didnt get his Noun pickles, well It was like a grilled cheese without Adjective Pickles were the Noun to his pizza, The Noun to his macaroni, and the Teddy to his bear. He pickles frozen, boiled, fried, grilled, baked, chocolate covered, in soup, on bread, in ice cream, always with his cereal, and never could sit down for a mean without a pickle and nice cold glass of pickle juice. One day when tommy couldn't find any pickles. His mom hid under her bed while tommy ate the fridge in search of any left behind pickle juice. It was bananas! Eventually one day tommy married a jar of pickles, and had little pickle children. They lived happily ever after. 3.
