It\\\'s Always Sunny in Blank Town

3 p.m. On a Saturday. Philadelphia, PA. Charlie thought it would be a Adjective idea to feed the Adjective Animal (plural) of that often follow him around the neighborhood as if he was Name of a person. But he didn't realize that Animal (plural) don't particularly care for Adjective Type of food and Adjective Type of food. He quickly asked Frank to go to Name of a store to purchase some appetite suppressants for the Plural noun since they weren't eating. Frank thought Charlie was onto something and soon announced that he was going to market a new diet pill for Plural noun called Slim Animal. A few days later, Deandra found the prototype and thought it was a product similar to a Slim Jim but made out of Animal meat. Disgusted, she barged into the bar to tell Dennis and Mac about the Adjective product she thought Frank and Charlie were Verb ending in ing out of Adjective Adjective Plural noun. Boy were they relieved when the simple misunderstanding was all worked out.
