Lights, Camera, MAKEUP!

In the _____^{Noun} industry, nothing is as important as your looks. You can be the most talented _____^{Profession} in the world, but if you look like a _____^{Animal} you may as well not even try. In this tutorial, we will teach you the art of makeup.

Step 1.

Apply _____^{Noun} two shades lighter than your natural skin tone. Make sure to apply very liberally. You want to be able to tell where the makeup ends and your _____^{Noun} begins.

Step 2.

Choose a blush that is very _____^{Noun} and brings attention to your face. You may have to use _____^{Number} or _____^{Number} compacts of blush. Apply to the apples of your cheeks and do not blend. You want to make your apples pop!

Step 3.

Depending on your eye color you may want to use between 5 and _____^{Number} shades of eyeshadow. Make sure that the colors are all different. Starting with the _____ Adjective _____ shade begin applying right under your eyebrow. Apply each color until you reach your lashline. Now is the time for _____ Noun _____.

Step 4.

Pick a shade that you like that has a lot of _____ Adjective _____. Beginning at the corner of your _____ Noun _____ apply in a thick flat line.

Step 5.

Finally the lips. If you don't like the natural shape of your lips, create a shape that you like. Feel free to apply beyond your lips. Pick a shade that matches your _____ Noun _____. Apply lots of it. Then add lots of clear sparkly gloss. If you get some on your _____ Body part _____ that's okay, it will enhance your _____ Event _____ later.
