

Kirsten Dunst

1. First Name
2. Year
3. Adjective
4. Article
5. Number
6. Past Tense Verb
7. Event
8. Past Tense Verb
9. Name Of A Person
10. Event
11. Article
12. Location
13. Verb
14. Verb
15. First Name

Kirsten Dunst

First name Dunst (born Year is an Adjective actress, model, and singer. She made her film debut in Oedipus Wrecks, a short film directed by Woody Allen for the anthology New York Stories. At Article age of Number, Dunst gained widespread recognition playing the role of vampire Claudia in Interview with the Vampire. She was Past tense verb for a event Event Award for Best Past tense verb Actress for this performance. That year she appeared in Little Women, to further acclaim. Dunst achieved international fame as a result of her portrayal of Mary Jane Watson in the Name of a person trilogy. Since then her films have included the romantic comedy Event, Article science fiction drama Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind and Cameron Crowe's tragicomedy Location. She played the title role in Sofia Coppola's Marie Antoinette, and she starred in the comedy How to Verb Friends & Verb People. In 2001, First name made her singing debut in the film Get Over It, in which she performed two songs.