

Ice Cream Sunday

1. Year
2. Insect
3. Type Of House
4. Noun
5. Season
6. Present Tense Verb
7. Noun
8. Same Insect As The Beginning
9. Adjective
10. Noun
11. Same Insect As The Beginning
12. Time Of Day
13. Location
14. Location
15. Location
16. Same Insect As The Beginning
17. Noun
18. Same Insect As The Beginning
19. Same Insect As The Beginning
20. Season

Ice Cream Sunday

In the year of our Lord _____ Year _____ vast swarms of _____ Insect _____ descended upon our _____ Type of house _____.

Twas a judgment upon us, yea certain, for how else could you explain the desecration of our _____ Noun _____ the dimming hope of survival for the coming _____ Season _____?

We tried _____ Present tense verb _____ methods to destroy the _____ Noun _____: some attempted to burn the _____ Same insect as the begining _____ some tried to _____ Adjective _____ or bury them. But alas, nothing, not even our _____ Noun _____ for deliverance, seemed able to stop the massive destruction of the _____ Same insect as the begining _____.

Then, when we had lost all hope, the _____ Time of day _____ sky was filled with the hoarse cry of gulls and the sound of wings. Before our eyes, thousands of gulls descended over the _____ Location _____ Location _____ and commenced a great feasting upon the _____ Same insect as the begining _____. Twas a miracle of _____ Noun _____. Every day the gulls came to eat the _____ Same insect as the begining _____ until there were no more _____ Same insect as the begining _____ left.

Our crops were saved and we survived the following Season.