Not your average Prophet

was a Adjective Adjective in the Book. Most people think that he lived in the Adjective land of Location where many Noun had jobs as Animal plural farmers and Occupation. But since there is not much Adjective evidence about who Name really was, some people think Name might have been a Adjective Obadiah mentioned in the Bible, who was an Adjective royal Occupation. In the Noun that Obadiah wrote, Book, he tells of the Number dreams about his neighbors, the Edomites. In his many Noun he saw the walls of Edom Verb ending in ing down, and the entire city being Past tense verb. He heard Name say "Though you Verb like an Noun and make their Noun among the stars from there I will bring you down, declares the Name; God told Obadiah to Verb and proclaim to Edom that the Event was Verb ending in ing. The Name were Past tense verb because they fought with God's Noun Adjective. Obadiah's Noun came true, and as the Edomites Plural noun crumbled, they yelled Exclamation;
