My family's jobs

There are so many jobs. My father is a           Noun          . He           Verb           big           Noun           and goes to Location           often. My mother is a teacher. She           Verb           her students. But she still gives Adjective           homework. I           Verb           animals. I could be an animal doctor. But I like to           Verb more. So maybe I'll be an           Noun           instead.
