Love is surprising

Once upon a time, a Adjective girl met a Adjective boy who made her laugh with his funny Noun. They quickly became friends. One day the girl's sister called and said she was having a Noun could the girl come and help take care of her Noun? The girl grabbed a Noun and got into her car. To her surprise, the boy was already in the car ready to help too! She knew immediately that she Past tense verb him! Then, the girl wanted to go to Location and she cried when she had to say goodbye to the boy. To her surprise, the boy came too! Together they rode their Plural noun and ran through Plural noun to stay together. When he was Adjective she took care of him and when she was Adjective he made her laugh. Today we are gathered here to share the love that these two still share and hope to share forever.
