

The Teacher who Could Smell a Lie

1. Noun
2. Adjective
3. Noun
4. Adjective
5. Name Of Girl In Room
6. Noun
7. Name Of Girl In Room
8. Name Of Girl In Room
9. Noun
10. Adjective
11. Noun
12. Miss
13. Name Of Teacher
14. Adjective
15. Name Of Girl In Room
16. Noun
17. Name Of Teacher
18. Verb
19. Adjective
20. Noun
21. Noun
22. Adjective
23. Name Of Teacher

24. Verb Ending In Ing
25. Name Of Teacher
26. Name Of Girl In Room
27. Name Of Girl In Room
28. Verb

The Teacher who Could Smell a Lie

There once was a _____ _____ was very mean. She would _____ her nose at everything _____ said, she always looked very _____. _____ didn't like her teacher very much, but her angry mother made her go to school anyway. "I don't like your attitude,"; her _____ would say in a very loud voice. _____ didn't like her mother, but she especially didn't like her teacher. One day, _____ came into _____ late. She'd been _____ the _____ and lost track of the time. "Why are you late?"; her angry teacher asked. _____ _____ eyes arched up and she _____ at _____. "What were you doing today?"; "I was...I was trying to find my _____; "I didn't assign any homework,"; snapped Miss
_____. "What were you really doing?"; "I...I was _____ a very _____ _____; _____ aren't _____; snapped Miss _____. "I smell a lie. What were you really doing?"; "I...I was _____ a book."; "You don't know how to read,"; snapped Miss _____. "What were you really doing?"; This would have continued on for hours, but a knock came from the door. _____ raced to the _____ _____ out of it, and was never seen again.